UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

VIDEO GAMING TECHNOLOGIES, INC.,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CASTLE HILL STUDIOS LLC, et al.

Defendants.

CASE NO. 17-CV-00454-GKF-JFJ

DEFENDANTS' FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF'S FOURTH SET OF INTERROGATORIES

Defendants Castle Hill Studios LLC, Castle Hill Holdings LLC, and Ironworks Development LLC (together "Castle Hill") submit this First Supplemental Response to Plaintiff's Fourth Set of Interrogatories.

SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTIONS AND ANSWERS TO INTERROGATORIES

INTERROGATORY NO. 21: With regard to each of the third party games referred to in Defendants' Second Supplemental Objections and Responses to Plaintiff's First Interrogatories to Defendants dated March 16, 2018, identify all facts of which CHG has knowledge, including stating whether CHG has any knowledge as to (1) whether each of these games is/was located in any of the same casinos as VGT and/or CHG games, (2) the dates during which each of these games has been/was in operation, (3) whether each of these games is/was a Class II game, and (4) whether each of these games is/was a 3-reel mechanical game.

RESPONSE: Castle Hill objects to this Interrogatory as overly broad and unduly burdensome. In its Second Supplemental Objections and Responses to Plaintiff's First Interrogatories, Castle Hill identified over 90 different electronic gaming machine titles which have similar themes, characters, or names to the VGT and Castle Hill games at issue in this case.

Castle Hill further included images of the machines and identified the relevant manufacturer of certain titles. VGT's request for Castle Hill to identify "all facts" regarding the more than 90 titles identified in Castle Hill's prior response is overly broad and unduly burdensome. Castle Hill further objects to this Interrogatory as compound in that it seeks "all facts" relating to the more than 90 titles identified in Castle Hill's prior response. Even if the interrogatory were limited to only the four items mentioned in the Interrogatory, which it is not, it would still contain more than three-hundred sixty subparts. Castle Hill further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent it seeks information protected by attorney-client privilege and/or the work product doctrine.

FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE: Castle Hill incorporates its General Objections set forth in its original Response to Plaintiff's Fourth Set of Interrogatories. Castle Hill further incorporates the objections and response set forth in its original response to Interrogatory No. 21 as set forth above.

Subject to and without waiver of these objections, Castle Hill states that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to answer as to the dates of operation of each of the third-party games referred to in this request. However, Castle Hill is aware of the following with respect to the third-party games which have similar themes, characters, or names to the VGT and Castle Hill games at issue in this case:
